

Are you applying for the...

National Science Foundation's Graduate Research Fellowship

On Thursday, October 24 from 5-7 PM in the Thornton Hall East Wing, Room 305, Archie Holmes, Associate Provost and Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering will lead a peer writing workshop intended to help applicants polish final drafts of their applications before submitting. Applicants should bring their drafts and be prepared to discuss their applications.

Information on the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship can be found here: <http://www.nsfgrfp.org>

RSVP: BethBeal@virginia.edu

October 24, 2013 from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Thornton Hall, East Wing Third Floor, Room 305

Refreshments will be available.

